Second Wind

Pot luck supper is at 5:30 p.m.

Program runs from 6 to 7 p.m.

Join us on Wednesday evenings in October and November for food, fellowship, and discussion. We will meet for six consecutive Wednesdays (October 6, 13, 20, 27, and November 3 and 10) to read and discuss selected essays, stories, and poems by Kentucky poet and writer Wendell Berry. The program will prepare us for a free, public convocation by Berry at Centre College on Monday, November 15. Presenting our Berry selections at Second Wind will be Michael Fabritius; Mark Lucas; Kathy and Preston Miles; Eric Mount; Milton Reigelman; and Beau Weston.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

Be on the look-out for an announcement in December of the Adult Formation Classes for spring 2011.

The Spiritual Life . Tim Noel

From time to time in our lives, we are led to a more spiritual way of life. Something in our depth cries out, orphaned voices, clamoring, struggling to be born. During these four weeks we will discuss the disciplines of the spiritual life, based on lectures by the well-known Dutch priest and writer Henri Nouwen.

Faith and Family Life . Salvador Leavitt-Alcantara & Kathy Miles

Our third class in this series will address a variety of family issues. The format will also follow that of the earlier classes, with sharing about participants' family life, prayer and scripture reading and discussion of a selected topic.

October 3, 10, 17, 24

Evolution and Creation in Scientific, Theological, and Sociological Perspective . Ray Hammond, Milton Scarborough, & Beau Weston

Ray Hammond will focus on distinguishing the scientific method from that of creationists, pointing out the incompleteness, skepticism, constant improvement, testing, and retesting that characterize the former. Milton Scarborough will talk about past and present theological responses to the challenge of evolution. Beau West will describe briefly the creation

World Mission Sunday

A look at the many ways we are engaged in global mission. museum in northern Kentucky before shifting to the larger context of the social controversy of creationism vs. science.

November 7, 14, 21, 28

Being Presbyterian in the Bible Belt . Jim Erwin

We will study and discuss the book by Ted Foote and Alex Thornburg of the same title. Recognizing that those who hold a more fundamental view of our faith tend to dominate the religious dialogue in society, our purpose will be to provide Presbyterians ways to respond to the questions asked by our neighbors rooted in the Bible Belt state of mind.+

--OR--

Seekers, Joiners, and Repeaters . Jim Stewart, Salvador Leavitt- Alcantara, & others
For new members, prospective members, and long-time members, anyone who wants to learn about the history and theology of Presbyterians, the story of our own church and its opportunities for service--for the first time, or as a refresher course.

Classes begin at 9:30 a.m.

December 5 and 19

Celebrating Through Giving . Salvador Leavitt-Alcantara

We will hear from guest speakers about Boyle County needs in this season.
